

Heavenly Nap

*You lived your nine lives here with me
my loyal, loving friend.*

*Then God took you up to Paradise
to live life number ten.*

I'll bet you're peacefully lying upon an angel's lap.

*Purring there, without a care
having a heavenly nap.*

*I'll miss you for a little while,
but our friendship still not end.*

Time will pass, and then at last you'll be on my lap again.
